LEAVE FELLOWSHIPS TO 345 CANADIAN ACADEMICS

Three hundred and forty-five leave fellowships worth a total of $3,771,000 have been awarded to Canadian academics in the humanities and social sciences by the Canada Council. The fellowships are tenable in 1976-77. Recipients were chosen in a competition which attracted 843 applicants.

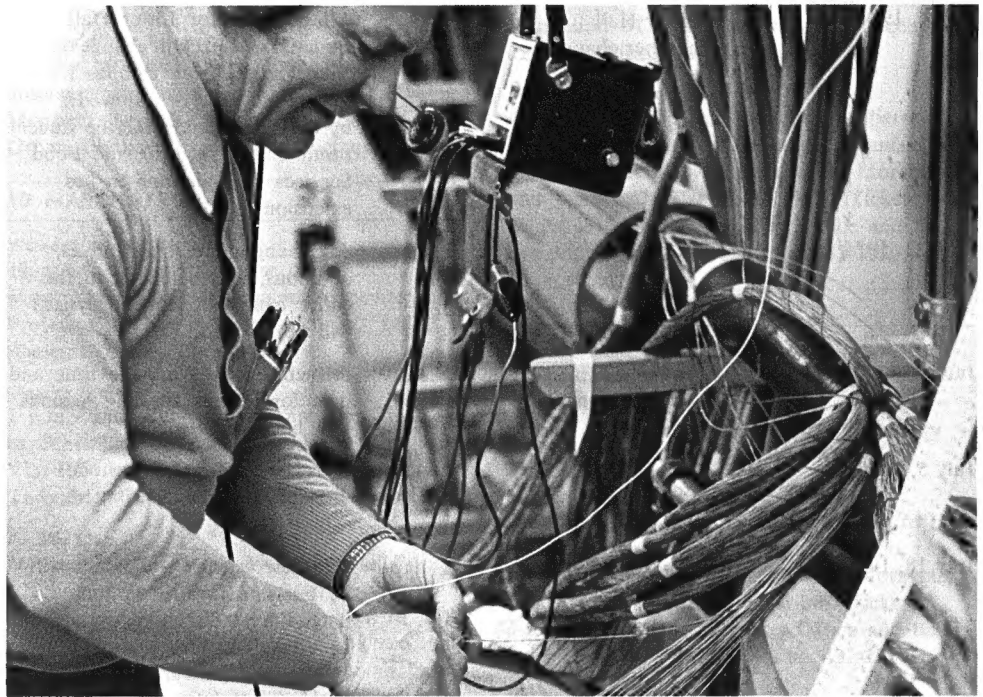

Leave fellowships enable faculty members of Canadian universities to undertake a year's independent research or study while on sabbatical leave. The fellowships are intended to help make up the difference between the award-holder's normal salary and the partial salary he receives while on leave. Full professors receive a maximum fellowship of $10,000; associate professors, $9,000; assistant professors and others, $7,000. An additional allowance for travel, plus up to $1,500 for research expenses, may be granted if needed.

The preliminary selection of candidates is made by a jury of specialists representing various disciplines in the humanities and social sciences. Their recommendations are then reviewed by a committee of the Council's Advisory Academic Panel before being submitted for the approval of the Canada Council.

The following individuals at this University have been awarded the Canada Council leave fellowships: Richard Alderman, Physical Education; Diane Bessai, English; Alan Bryan, Anthropology; Joseph Cahill, Religious Studies; Leonard Conolly, English; Regna Darnell, Anthropology; Duncan Fishwick, Classics; David Hall, History; Roderick Macleod, History; Uri Margolin, Comparative Literature; Norman Page, English; Robert Patterson, Educational Psychology; Frederick Radford, English; John Tarver, Drama; Michele Veeman, Rural Economy; and Muriel Whitaker, English.

CONSULATE-GENERAL SPONSORS "JAPAN TODAY"

Over the years, the Consulate-General of Japan has been very active in supporting and organizing activities and functions that, in bringing the University and the community together, help to foster an increased awareness of Japan and its culture. Under the sponsorship of the Consul-General of Japan, K. Kikuchi, a seminar entitled "Japan Today" was yet another activity of this kind. The seminar, which was held on March 6, was for superintendents of the public and separate school boards as well as some 150 Edmonton teachers. Faculty involved in East Asian Studies at the University conducted the seminar, which included films, discussions, and dance performances by local Japanese-Canadians under the direction of Michi Miyagishima. A buffet luncheon, courtesy of the Consulate-General of Japan, was served. In February, the two Japanese films, Pomegranate Time and Stake a Life for Nothing—shown for the first time in North America—were also sponsored by the Consulate-General. These events are examples of the continuing interest in and service to the community displayed by the Japanese Government.

CENTREX

The installation, splicing, and testing of new telephone cables, in preparation for centrex service, is proceeding rapidly in the basement of the Medical Sciences Building. The new telephone room, containing 16,800 cables, will replace the smaller and older room in University Hall. Centrex with its "state of the art" technology will improve call processing speed, increase the local capacity, provide additional rotary service, and improve maintenance service for the campus telephone network.

In order to connect all campus telephones to the new computer controlled switching equipment it will be necessary to connect the old campus telephone cables to the new telephone cables. During this connecting/testing process there may be momentary interruptions on your telephone line. However, the majority of lines will be connected without the user being aware of the change.

A mini-calendar of significant centrex events is listed on page two.

CENTREX CALENDAR

Date	Event	Activity
April 1, 1976	Key system freeze	All changes including moves, additions, and deletions to key systems (i.e. multiline instruments) will be stopped.
May 2, 1976	Lister Hall number change	All numbers for Lister Hall student residents will change on this date. Callers from campus lines will have to dial 9 followed by the new number for the student room. Note: Housing and Food Services will continue to use extension 4281.
May 21, 1976	Telephone service freeze	All changes including moves, additions, and deletions to the entire campus telephone system will be stopped.
June 21, 1976	Orientation sessions	A memo identifying the time and date for centrex training sessions will be distributed.
July 5, 1976	Distribution of centrex telephone directory	A revised campus telephone directory will be distributed.
July 18, 1976	Centrex cut-over	The new centrex equipment will be put into service on this date. Direct dialing into the Provincial Laboratory of Public Health and University Health Service will begin.
August 2, 1976	Telephone service changes reinstituted	The normal routine for processing service orders will resume for all changes in telephone equipment.

NOTICES

TOWING RATES TO BE INCREASED

Cliff's Towing Service Limited has advised the University that effective March 22, 1976, the towing rates from the University of Alberta campus will be increased to $13 plus $2 storage for each day or part thereof.

COURSE EVALUATION QUESTIONNAIRE

The Students' Union will soon be administering a course evaluation questionnaire to as many courses and sections as possible. Any cooperation that Departments or individual faculty members can give will be greatly appreciated. The information gathered will be tabulated and all interested instructors will receive a copy of the data relevant to their classes. For further information, please phone the Course Guide Coordinator at 432-4236.

BIRTHRIGHT OPEN HOUSE

Birthright, an Edmonton service organization for pregnant girls and women in distress, is holding an open house on Sunday, March 21, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Dr. J.R. Leeder Birthright House, 9805 105 Street. Everyone is welcome to attend.

PUBLIC SCIENCE LECTURE

On Wednesday, March 24, at 8:30 p.m. in 2-27 Medical Sciences Building, the Edmonton chapter of the Canadian Society for the Weizmann Institute of Science will present a lecture by David Lavie of the Weizmann Institute of Science in Israel. The lecture is entitled "Magic spells and modern chemistry" and will emphasize the discovery of new drugs from plant sources and their use in cancer chemotherapy, as antibiotics, and in other areas. The general public is invited to attend.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF PENSION CONTRIBUTIONS

The Public Service Pension Administration has announced that until their computer can be programmed to reflect a complete, accurate, and updated record of pension contributions, interest, and service, they will discontinue the practice of sending out annual pension statements to all persons covered by the Public Service Pension Plan. Statements will now be issued only to those who submit a completed "Application for Statement of Pension Contributions" form.

Generally all full-time non-academic staff members are members of the Public Service Pension Plan.

University employees may obtain application forms from the Pension Plans Division, Office of the Comptroller, 17 Administration Building. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., including the

This ten-inch high sculptured head of a Bodhisattva is probably of the sixth century A.D. A Bodhisattva is a particularly exalted Buddhist monk who has attained perfection before his death. The sculpture was donated to the University on May 25, 1964, by Major A. Cathcart-Bruce; he obtained it from a tribesman in the Khyber Pass in exchange for a rifle. The sculpture was found near Peshawar, in northwest Pakistan. (University Library Collection)

NON-CREDIT COURSES

AIRPHOTO INTERPRETATION FOR RECREATION: THE PRAIRIE LANDSCAPE

The Faculty of Extension is offering an evening course in airphoto interpretation beginning April 7. Canoeists, hikers, mountain climbers, campers, hunters, prospectors, and others interested in the outdoors can gain important information from airphotos which will enable them to enjoy their sport more. Such information would include topographic forms, slope gradients, origin and materials of landforms, vegetation cover, conditions on established trails, and travelling through open bush country.

The Prairie Landscape, the first in a series of three airphoto interpretation for recreation courses, will provide a study of terrain through an understanding of geologic features of the landscape to be seen on stereoscopic vertical airphotos. John D. Godfrey, Research Geologist, Alberta Research Council, will conduct the course.

The course is limited to 25 participants. Registrations are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee is $35 with airphotos provided for classroom work. For additional information call 432-5532.

COPING WITH CHANGE AND CONFLICT

Change and the inevitable conflict which accompanies it will be discussed at this one-day seminar, April 21, sponsored by the Faculty of Extension.

Gordon L. Lippitt, Professor of Behavioral Science, George Washington University, Washington, D.C., will conduct the seminar, which will deal with a process of initiating, creating, and confronting needed changes in personal and organizational life to make it possible for human systems to become or remain viable, adaptive, and mature. The seminar will explore some of the ways of coping with change and making conflict creative and constructive.

Registrations for the seminar are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee is $75 including materials and lunch. For additional information call 432-5066 or 432-5067.

SPRING CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

The Faculty of Extension is offering three courses this spring which apply to two Certificate programs—Management Development Program and Personnel Administration Program. The courses are Business Organization and Administration, Canadian Economic Development, and Personnel Administration. Each course will be held Mondays and Thursdays from 7 to 10 p.m. beginning April 29 through June 28.

The fee per course is $150 which includes textbooks and materials. The registration deadline is April 19.

Students requiring complete information on the Certificate Programs, their objectives, and entrance requirements, or information on the three courses being offered should contact the Faculty of Extension at 432-3027 or 432-5545.
